

Message from Executive Chairman

The Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987 has been enacted by the Parliament to give effect to the constitutional mandate under Article 39-A for providing access to justice to all by providing suitable legal aid. Legal Aid is not confined to representation before court but also includes Legal Literacy and mechanism for providing Justice at Pre-litigation stage also by giving advice, providing a forum for Conciliation/Mediation and also by approaching the authorities concerned. This also includes sensitizing the Government machinery and all those who are concerned in the field of administration of Justice.

In the present age website is effective means for providing easy access to information. With this end in view, this website has been set up. Attempts are being made to update the same from time to time. Any suggestions about schemes, projects or about the working of the Haryana State Legal Services Authority are welcome.

Adarsh Kumar Goel